Re: Citizens to Elect Marilyn C. Castle
Candidate in October 3, 1992 Election
Judge, 15th Judicial District Court

Dear Sirs:

I received recent correspondence from you concerning the above captioned campaign committee report. I refer you to the enclosed letter of March 2, 1998, the enclosed memo from you of January 5, 1996 and the enclosed report dated February 10, 1997.

In accordance with your memo of January 5, 1996, I filed my last campaign report in 1997, which was five (5) years past the election. It was my understanding, based upon your memo, that a supplemental report was not required when I was not elected and my election was more than five years ago. Thus, I sent to you the letter of March 2, 1998.

I am at a loss as to why, at this late date, you are asking about reports regarding a 1992 election in which there has been no activity since the calendar year 1993.

As of the last report filed in this matter, the only information shown were outstanding loans owed by the committee to myself and my husband in the total amount of $4,249.28. Those loans have long been forgiven.

I subsequently sought and was elected to a judgeship in 1998. However, this campaign had a different committee and it is continuing to report to you. Perhaps there is some confusion in your office, but a check of your records should show that the 1992 election was conducted under a committee entitled, "Citizens to Elect Marilyn C. Castle" while the 1998 committee was entitled, "Committee to Elect Marilyn Castle".

Please respond in writing to advise me as to whether anything further is required on my part in regard to the October 3, 1992 election and the committee entitled, "Citizens to Elect Marilyn Castle".

Very truly yours,

MARILYN C. CASTLE
